Berk/Bockus Honorary Lecture and Grand Rounds 2014

Wednesday, October 22, 2014
Bluemle Life Sciences Building, Room 101
233 S. 10th Street
Philadelphia PA 19107

Course Description

The Berk/Bockus Honorary Lecture and Grand Rounds has been established to honor two Jefferson graduates who had distinguished careers in gastroenterology, Henry L. Bockus, MD, MACP (Class of 1917) and J. Edward Berk, MD, DSc, FASGE (Class of 1936). This distinguished lecture series will address pertinent topics in gastroenterological diseases. The focus on updated approaches to the diagnosis and treatment of gastrointestinal illness will be reinforced through lively interactive case-based presentations.

Course Objectives

At the conclusion of this course, participants should be able to:

- Describe the epidemiology of Barrett's esophagus and esophageal adenocarcinoma.
- Assess the effectiveness of current measures to prevent esophageal adenocarcinoma.
- Examine the new research developments to improve care of patients with Barrett's.
- Analyze their individual practice in light of the information and discussions during the course, and identify specific strategies to implement as part of a continuing improvement process for their practices.
