Course Description

The 26th Annual Pan Philadelphia Neurosurgery Conference is co-directed by three area Neurosurgical Training Programs: Sidney Kimmel Medical College at Thomas Jefferson University, Temple University School of Medicine, and the Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania. This year's program will feature a keynote address, presented by David P. McQuaid, RPh, MBA, FACHE, Executive Vice President, Clinical Affairs, Jefferson Health System and President & CEO, Thomas Jefferson University Hospitals, Inc. During the Controversy Sessions of the program, participants will have the opportunity to learn from renowned leaders, as they discuss and debate difficult cases in vascular surgery, spinal disorders, functional neurosurgery, and brain tumors with the opportunity to join the discussion. Additionally, a resident research competition will provide an analytical review of current resident research endeavors.

We hope you will join us for this invaluable educational event!

Conference Location

The 26th Annual Pan Philadelphia Neurosurgery Conference will take place on Friday, December 5, 2014 at The Union League of Philadelphia, located at 140 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102.

Accreditation

Sidney Kimmel Medical College at Thomas Jefferson University is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Course Objectives

At the conclusion of this course, participants should be able to:

- 1) Discuss the indications and outcomes for carotid stenosis intervention.
- 2) Review and discuss the management of thoracolumbar fractures, including the role of surgical and non-surgical treatment options.
- 3) Critically assess the available literature regarding the treatment of brain metastases.
- 4) Understand the role of emerging technologies in functional neurosurgery for the treatment of Parkinsonism, epilepsy, and pain disorders.
- 5) Assess their individual practices in light of the information and discussions during the course, and identify specific strategies to implement as part of a continuing improvement process for their practices.

Dress Code

The Union League's Dress Code requires Business Casual Attire for ladies and gentlemen. Gentlemen are required to wear a collared shirt and slacks; turtleneck and mock-turtlenecks may be worn when accompanied by a suit jacket or sport coat. For women dresses, blouses and skirts, or pants suit are appropriate attire. Pants should be tailored and are acceptable when worn with a jacket or other garments which would be appropriate if worn with a skirt. At no time are jeans, sneakers, athletic clothing, or shorts permitted on the first or second floor of The League House. The Union League reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone not adhering to the Dress Code.
